

Precision Carving Bar for Detailing Work

This carving bar is designed for precision work. It allows for intricate detailing in specialized carving applications.

Product Overview

Precision Carving Bar for Detailing

This high-quality steel carving bar is engineered for intricate detailing work where precision is paramount. Featuring a hard nose tip, the bar is designed for an extended service life even under demanding conditions. Its compact profile makes it an ideal tool for professional carvers requiring accuracy and durability in their equipment.

Material & Construction

Tip Construction

Hard Nose Tip • Long Life

Primary Material

High-quality steel

Technical Specifications

Key Features

- Solid, opaque material construction
- Rounded tip for precision carving
- Uniform width for consistent handling
- Smooth surface finish

Primary Application

Detailing Work

Dimensions

Size Reference

Compact precision scale (comparable to small currency)