

Prefabricated Sand-Based Duty Room and Fire House

Prefabricated duty room and fire house constructed with sand-based materials. It features a secure door, brick-patterned lower section, and a contrasting upper section for durability and functionality.

Product Overview

Prefabricated Duty Room and Fire House

This prefabricated duty room and fire house is engineered for durability and reliable functionality in diverse operational environments. Constructed using robust sand-based materials, the structure features a secure entry point and a distinct architectural design with a brick-patterned lower section for enhanced stability and aesthetics. It offers a practical, ready-to-deploy solution for security, emergency services, or site management needs.

Construction & Design

Primary Material	Sand-based composite
Design Features	Brick-patterned exterior, Secure door access, Prefabricated structure, Two-tone aesthetic

Applications

Common Applications

- Security duty rooms
- Fire station outposts
- Site management offices
- Emergency response shelters

Performance

Safety Level
Safety Verified