

Professional Texture and Pattern Hair Styling Device with Interchangeable Molds

This professional salon equipment features interchangeable molds for creating various textures and patterns. The device includes a heated pressing mechanism with a temperature control switch.

Product Overview

Precision Styling Solution

This professional-grade texture and pattern styling device is engineered for salon environments, offering versatile performance through an integrated heated pressing mechanism. The system features a set of interchangeable molds that empower stylists to create diverse hair textures and patterns with consistent results. Designed for high-volume use, it includes precise temperature control to ensure optimal styling conditions across different hair types.

Technical Specifications

Included Components

- Heated styling device
- Set of interchangeable texture molds

Key Features

Interchangeable Molds, Heated Pressing Mechanism, Adjustable Temperature Control, Professional Grade

Intended Environment

Professional Salon