

Professional Tire Changer Machine

This professional tire changer machine is designed for efficient and reliable tire service in automotive maintenance shops. It features a robust construction for durability and precision, ensuring safe and effective tire removal and installation.

Product Overview

Professional Tire Service Solution

This professional tire changer machine is engineered for high-volume automotive maintenance shops requiring efficient and reliable tire service. Built with robust construction, it ensures durability and precision during both tire removal and installation processes. The unit features an ergonomic design with user-friendly controls, specifically developed to enhance workshop productivity while minimizing operator fatigue.

Key Features

Core Components

- Powerful bead breaker
- Turntable with clamping jaws
- Mounting/demounting head

Design Focus

Ergonomic • Durable • Precision-Engineered

Application Suitability

Automotive Maintenance, High-Volume Tire Shops, Service Centers