

Public Access Telephone with Keypad and Display

This public telephone is designed for public use. It features a numeric keypad, display screens, and a robust build.

Product Overview

Rugged Public Access Telephone

This public access telephone is designed for reliable performance in high-traffic environments. It features a robust housing built for durability and extended outdoor or indoor use. The integrated display and keypad system supports caller identification and billing functions, making it a comprehensive communication solution for public facilities.

Technical Specifications

Interface

- Numeric keypad
- Integrated display screen
- Function buttons
- Caller identification support

Model Number	HA1218TD(CID)
Application	Public Access, Robust Build, Commercial Use

Operational Features

Billing System	Yes
-----------------------	-----