

Railway Passenger Car

This is a railway passenger car designed for transporting passengers on railways. The car is painted in a red and white color scheme and features multiple windows and a door.

Overview

Railway Passenger Car Overview

This railway passenger car is designed for reliable transport operations, featuring a distinct red and white exterior finish. The carriage is equipped with multiple windows for passenger visibility and includes a dedicated boarding door with integrated steps for safe access. Identified by model number YW-71963, this unit is suitable for integration into standard railway fleet configurations.

Technical Details

Model ID	YW-71963
Exterior Features	Red and White Livery, Multiple Windows, Integrated Boarding Steps
Design Type	Passenger Carriage