

Railway Passenger Car with Air Conditioning

This is a railway passenger car designed for transporting passengers. It is equipped with air conditioning units on the roof.

Overview

GW25K Official Railway Passenger Car

The GW25K official passenger car is a specialized railway vehicle designed for comfortable and reliable rail transport. Featuring a distinct green livery with a yellow stripe, this carriage is equipped with integrated roof-mounted air conditioning systems to ensure passenger comfort in various climates. Its robust design and layout make it suitable for official service and passenger operations.

Technical Specifications

Model Designation	GW25K
Climate Control	Yes
Key Features	Air Conditioning, Passenger Car, Railway Equipment
Unit ID	GW25K-158