

Railway Transport Covered Wagon

This covered wagon is designed for railway transportation. It features a robust construction to protect cargo from the elements and is equipped with standard railway wheels and coupling systems.

Overview

P70 Railway Covered Wagon

The P70 type covered wagon is a robust freight solution designed specifically for secure railway transportation. Its fully enclosed design provides essential protection against weather and environmental elements during transit. Engineered for seamless integration, the wagon features standard wheel assemblies and coupling systems fully compatible with existing international railway infrastructure.

Technical Details

Identification Markings

- P70 棚车
- P70 Covered Wagon
- 3802 080

Model Designation	P70
Category	Covered Wagon
Compatibility	Standard Railway Wheels, Standard Coupling Systems