

Red Commuter Motorcycle with Single-Cylinder Engine

This is a standard commuter motorcycle equipped with telescopic front forks and dual rear shock absorbers. Braking is provided by a front disc brake and a rear drum brake.

Overview

Reliable Commuter Motorcycle

This red commuter motorcycle is designed for daily reliability and ease of use in urban environments. Featuring a classic, upright riding position and a responsive single-cylinder engine, it offers a comfortable and straightforward riding experience. Its robust construction includes telescopic front forks and dual rear shock absorbers to handle varied road conditions effectively.

Engine & Performance

Engine Type	Single-Cylinder
Displacement Range	125cc - 250cc

Chassis & Suspension

Front Suspension	Telescopic Forks
Rear Suspension	Dual Shock Absorbers

Braking System

Braking Configuration

1 Front Disc Brake	1 Rear Drum Brake
------------------------------	-----------------------------

Design & Aesthetics

Color	Red
Wheel Type	Cast Alloy
Exhaust System	Single, Side-mounted