

Reinforced Webbing Sling for Lifting

This webbing sling is designed for lifting and rigging applications. Constructed from durable synthetic fibers, it features reinforced eye loops and multiple stitched lines for added strength and wear resistance.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Lifting Solutions

These reinforced webbing slings are engineered for heavy-duty lifting and rigging applications across industrial and construction sectors. Constructed from high-strength synthetic fibers, they offer superior resistance to abrasion and UV degradation to ensure longevity. The slings feature reinforced eye loops for secure attachment points, providing a safe and reliable solution for hoisting heavy loads.

Performance Specifications

Working Load Limit

2000 KG
WLL

Certifications

GS

Design & Construction

Available Types

- Eye-Eye Webbing Sling
- Endless Webbing Sling
- Roundless Sling

Material Characteristics

High-strength synthetic fiber, UV degradation resistant, Abrasion resistant, Reinforced stitching