

Residential Garage Door Motor

This garage door motor automates the opening and closing of residential garage doors. It features a digital display for settings, push-button controls, and a durable housing.

Product Overview

Residential Garage Door Automation

This residential garage door motor is engineered for reliable, daily operation of sectional and tilt-up garage doors. The unit features an integrated digital display and intuitive push-button controls, allowing for precise configuration of settings and code programming. Its robust housing provides essential protection against environmental factors, ensuring long-term durability in home garage environments.

Technical Features

Control Interface

- Digital display for settings
- Up/Down push-button controls
- Dedicated code setting button

Durability

Robust Housing • Environmental Protection

Door Compatibility

Sectional Doors, Tilt-up Doors