

Residential Smoke Detector with Twist-to-Remove Mechanism

This smoke detector is designed for residential or commercial use. It detects smoke and provides early warning of fire.

Product Overview

Reliable Fire Safety Solution

The KD-108 is a compact, round smoke detector designed for essential fire safety in residential and commercial environments. Featuring a user-friendly twist-to-remove mechanism, this device allows for quick installation and easy maintenance. Its design incorporates multiple ventilation holes to ensure rapid smoke detection and early warning capabilities.

Technical Details

Important Maintenance Note

Do not paint

Model Number	KD-108
Installation Mechanism	Twist-to-tighten / Twist-to-remove
Design Features	Round design, Ventilation holes, Compact

Application

Intended Environment

- Residential
- Commercial