

Retail Point of Sale (POS) System

This point-of-sale (POS) system is designed for retail or business environments to process transactions, manage inventory, and track sales data. The unit includes a screen for operator input and display, and a smaller display for customer viewing of transaction details.

Overview

Professional Retail POS Solution

This comprehensive Point of Sale (POS) system is engineered for efficient transaction processing and streamlined business management. The all-in-one unit integrates essential hardware including a cash drawer, receipt printer, and dual-display terminals for both operators and customers. It is designed to handle inventory management and sales tracking, making it an ideal solution for modern retail environments.

Hardware Components

Included Components

- Integrated Cash Drawer
- Receipt Printer
- Operator Terminal with Keyboard
- Customer Display Screen

Key Features

Transaction Processing, Inventory Management, Sales Data Tracking, Dual-Display Interface

Technical Specifications

Display Configuration

Dual-screen setup (Operator Terminal and Customer Display)