

Reusable Rubber Twist Tie

These reusable twist ties are made of flexible rubber. They feature a slotted head design for secure fastening and are suitable for organizing cables, securing bags, and various applications.

Product Overview

Professional Reusable Twist Ties

These reusable rubber twist ties offer a versatile solution for cable management and securing items in both office and household environments. Designed for durability and repeated use, they feature a unique slotted head that ensures a secure hold every time. Constructed from high-quality PA66 material, these ties provide reliability and performance for demanding B2B applications.

Manufacturing Standards

Production Capacity

110 sets

Injection Machines

400 employees

Workforce

Material Grade

PA66, Premium Dupont Quality, Ascend Quality

Experience

25 years

Key Features

Design Advantages

- Reusable and durable rubber construction
- Slotted head for secure attachment
- Suitable for organized cable management
- Ideal for industrial and commercial use