

Revolving Leather Hole Punch Pliers

The revolving leather hole punch plier is designed for creating clean and precise holes in materials like leather, fabric, plastic, and rubber. It features a rotating punch head with multiple hole sizes, typically ranging from 2mm to 4.5mm, for easy selection of the desired hole diameter.

Product Overview

Versatile Precision Tooling

The revolving leather hole punch plier is a professional-grade hand tool engineered for clean and precise hole creation across diverse materials. Featuring a rotating punch head with multiple size settings, it offers exceptional versatility for leather crafting, belt making, and shoe repair. The ergonomic design and hardened steel construction ensure both user comfort and long-term durability for demanding projects.

Technical Specifications

Hole Diameters

- 2mm
- 2.5mm
- 3mm
- 3.5mm
- 4mm
- 4.5mm

Compatible Materials

Leather, Fabric, Plastic, Rubber

Punch Material

Hardened Steel

Features

Key Features

Rotating Punch Head • Ergonomic Handles • High Leverage Design • Durable Construction

Common Applications

- Leather Crafting
- Belt Making
- Shoe Repair
- DIY Projects