

Sanding Belts

These sanding belts are designed for various sanding applications. They are constructed with durable materials for an extended product life and consistent performance.

Product Overview

Professional Performance Sanding Belts

These high-performance sanding belts are engineered for professional-grade results across diverse applications. Constructed with durable materials to ensure extended operational life, they provide consistent, even finishes on wood, metal, and various other surfaces. Available in a comprehensive range of grits, these belts are the ideal solution for both heavy-duty industrial tasks and precision sanding needs.

Technical Specifications

Best For

- Professional use
- DIY projects

Surface Compatibility

Wood, Metal

Performance Features

Build Quality

Extended life • Consistent performance