

Single-Head Computerized Embroidery Machine

This single-head computer embroidery machine is a versatile tool for creating designs on fabrics. It features a user-friendly interface and high-speed motor for consistent stitching.

Overview

Professional Single-Head Embroidery Solution

This computerized single-head embroidery machine is designed for both commercial workshops and home studios requiring precise, high-quality fabric customization. It features a high-speed motor paired with advanced sensors for thread break detection and automatic trimming, ensuring consistent output and minimal downtime. With a user-friendly interface and comprehensive design editing software, it offers a versatile solution for intricate embroidery tasks on a variety of materials.

Performance & Features

Key Features

- Automatic thread trimming
- Thread break detection system
- High-speed motor for consistent stitching
- Built-in design editing software

Suitable For

Commercial Use • Home Use

Interface

Large LCD screen for operation and monitoring

Technical Specifications

Construction

Sturdy, durable frame for stability

File Compatibility

Multiple Formats Supported