

Single Pole Light Switch

This single pole light switch is the basic product in the W62 series. It provides simple on/off control for lighting circuits and is suitable for indoor use.

Overview

Versatile Single Pole Light Switch

This single pole, single throw (SPST) light switch is designed for reliable on/off control in both residential and commercial lighting applications. It features a modular design that allows for flexible configuration and is built with fire-resistant PC plastic to ensure safety. With global compatibility and robust construction, this switch is an ideal solution for diverse electrical installations.

Technical Specifications

Wiring Design	Large wiring space with secure, non-retaining screws
Material	Fire-resistant PC plastic

Compliance & Certification

Certifications	CE, CB
----------------	--------

Features

Available Configurations

- Modular design for custom combinations
- With or without indicator lights
- With or without fluorescent particles

Market Compatibility

Regional Suitability

Southeast Asia • South America • Europe