

Six-Wheel Carbide Glass Cutter with Wooden Handle

This carbide glass cutter features a precision-engineered cutting head with six individual carbide wheels and a durable wooden handle. The multi-wheel design ensures smooth scoring on various types of glass, making it suitable for professional and DIY applications.

Product Overview

Precision Glass Cutting Tool

This carbide glass cutter features a durable wooden handle and a precision-engineered cutting head equipped with six individual carbide wheels. The multi-wheel design ensures smooth and consistent scoring on various types of glass, making it suitable for both professional and DIY glass cutting applications. Designed for ease of use, it provides a comfortable grip for extended periods of work, ideal for cutting glass sheets for windows, mirrors, and craft projects.

Technical Specifications

Maximum Cutting Thickness	6 mm
Number of Cutting Wheels	6
Material Composition	Carbide Alloy, Wood

Key Features

Product Highlights

- 6-wheel rotating head for extended life
- Durable carbide alloy cutting wheels
- Ergonomic wooden handle for comfortable grip
- Suitable for professional and DIY use