

Smart Water Softener

This smart water softener is suitable for residential and light commercial applications. It removes hardness minerals, preventing scale buildup and improving the effectiveness of soaps and detergents.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Smart Water Softener FCV-09

The FCV-09 is a high-efficiency smart water softener engineered for both residential and light commercial applications. By effectively removing hardness minerals like calcium and magnesium, this system prevents scale buildup in plumbing and improves the lifespan of your appliances. Its advanced electronic control valve offers customizable regeneration modes to optimize salt and water consumption while ensuring a continuous supply of soft water.

Performance & Features

Key Performance Metrics

1 Smart

System Type

2 Res/Com

Primary Applications

Regeneration Modes

Time-clock Initiated, Metered Regeneration, Automatic

Technical Specifications

Included Components

- Advanced electronic control valve
- High-capacity resin tank
- Brine tank for salt storage
- Digital display interface

Operational Benefits

| Feature | Outcome |
|----------------------|---|
| Scale Prevention | Protects pipes and appliances |
| Softening Efficiency | Improved soap and detergent performance |
| Resource Management | Optimized salt and water usage |