

Specialized Power Cutting Tool and Driver Set

This set includes a power cutting tool designed for specialized tasks such as metal or cable cutting, along with a handheld driver. The tools are engineered for professional and industrial use, offering robust performance and specialized functionality.

Product Overview

Professional Power Tool Set

The TBJ-2 is a specialized power cutting tool and driver set engineered for high-performance industrial applications. This robust system features advanced cutting attachments designed for precise metal or cable manipulation alongside a versatile handheld driver. Built for durability and efficiency, this set provides a reliable solution for professional technicians needing consistent power and specialized control.

Key Features

Compliance and Standards

Professional Grade, Industrial Specification

Performance Specifications

Technical Ratings

2 TBJ

Model Series Identifier

System Components

Set Components

- Specialized Cutting Tool Attachment
- Handheld Power Driver