

Spek Marine Anchor

This spek anchor is black painted. It provides excellent holding power for vessels ranging from small boats to large ships.

Overview

CB711-95 Spek Anchor

The CB711-95 Spek anchor is a robust and reliable anchoring solution engineered for diverse marine applications. Designed with a traditional two-fluke configuration, this anchor ensures secure seabed penetration and exceptional holding power across varying sea conditions. Constructed from high-strength materials, it offers superior durability and corrosion resistance, making it a dependable choice for vessels ranging from small crafts to large ships.

Technical Specifications

Weight Range

100 kg

Minimum Weight

18800 kg

Maximum Weight

Surface Finish

Black painted

Model Standard

CB711-95

Certifications

Available Certifications

ABS, LR, DNV, GL, KR, IRS, CCS

Product Range

Available Anchor Types

- Stock anchor
- Stockless anchor
- Offshore anchor
- High holding power anchor