

Standard Definition Digital Cable Set-Top Box

This digital video broadcasting cable set-top box is designed for receiving and decoding digital cable television signals. It features a front panel display, multiple control buttons, and connectivity ports for audio and video output.

Overview

Standard Definition Cable Set-Top Box

This digital video broadcasting cable set-top box is engineered for reliable reception and decoding of digital cable television signals. Designed for standard definition output, it provides a stable and clear viewing experience for home entertainment systems. The unit features an intuitive front panel display and physical control buttons for easy navigation, making it a practical solution for cable TV integration.

Technical Specifications

Signal Compatibility

DVB-C • Standard Definition

Interface Features

- Front panel display
- Physical control buttons
- Audio output ports
- Video output ports

Model Identifier

P 007