

Standard Definition Television with Silver Frame

This is a standard definition television. It features a silver frame and displays images on a black screen.

Product Overview

Professional Standard Definition Television

This standard definition television features a classic design with a sleek silver frame, making it a suitable choice for environments requiring traditional display solutions. It is engineered for reliability and consistent performance in professional or educational settings. The unit includes accessible front-panel controls for straightforward operation, ensuring ease of use in high-traffic applications.

Technical Specifications

Display Definition

Standard Definition

Available Models

TH-1459, TH-2159

Control Interface

Front panel physical buttons

Design Features

Frame Color

Silver

Bezel Style

Wide Bezel