

Stationary Router Table for Woodworking

This router table provides a stable and precise platform for routing operations. It enhances control and safety compared to handheld routers, making it a valuable tool for both professional woodworkers and hobbyists.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Stationary Router Table

This stationary router table provides a highly stable and precise platform for advanced routing operations in woodworking. Designed for enhanced control and safety compared to handheld routing, it is ideal for shaping edges, cutting grooves, and creating complex profiles. The durable construction and spacious surface ensure reliable performance for both professional workshops and serious hobbyists.

Dimensions & Build

Table Dimensions

810 mm
Length

610 mm
Width

36 mm
Thickness

Working Height

880 mm

Technical Features

Available Aperture Diameters

- 105
- 72
- 32

Table Surface Material

MDF