

Steel Pick Mattock Head with Chisel Blade

Forged from high-quality steel, this pick mattock head offers durability and reliable performance. It features a pointed pick for breaking up hard soil and a chisel blade for cutting through roots and sod.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Grade Mattock Head

This forged steel pick mattock head is engineered for durability and high-performance in demanding environments. It features a versatile dual-end design with a pointed pick for breaking up hard soil and rocks, and a chisel blade for effectively cutting through roots and sod. Designed for reliability, the precisely sized eye ensures a secure connection with standard mattock handles, making it an essential tool for landscaping, construction, and heavy-duty gardening tasks.

Technical Specifications

Key Features

- Pointed pick for hard soil and rocks
- Chisel blade for roots and sod
- Standard eye size for secure handle fit

Material

Forged high-quality steel

Ideal Applications

Gardening, Landscaping, Construction