

Steel Structure Engineering and Construction

Provides engineering and construction services for steel structures. These services are crucial for building durable frameworks in large construction projects.

Overview

Engineering and Construction Services

This service provides comprehensive steel structure engineering and construction capabilities for large-scale industrial projects. The solution encompasses professional site operations, including heavy structural assembly and welding, supported by experienced crews and advanced machinery. Safety protocols are strictly maintained, with personnel equipped with essential safety gear for complex construction environments.

Operational Metrics

Seismic Crew Deployment

188 count

Total Seismic Crew-Times

112 count

2D Crew-Times

76 count

3D Crew-Times

Specialized Crews

9 count

VSP Crews

31 count

Non-Seismic Crews

Data Acquisition Statistics

Metric	Volume
2D Lines Acquired	74,392 km
3D Profiles Acquired	53,525 sq km

Service Capabilities

Survey Capabilities

Gravity Survey, Magnetic Survey, Electric Survey, Geochemical Exploration