

Steel Wrecking Bar

This steel wrecking bar is designed for prying and demolition work. It is made from high-strength steel and features an angled chisel end.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Grade Wrecking & Crow Bars

These high-strength steel wrecking and crow bars are engineered for heavy-duty demolition, prying, and construction tasks. Available in a wide variety of configurations including round, hexagonal, and rectangular profiles, these tools offer versatility for diverse job site requirements. With options ranging from compact nail pullers to long-reach demolition bars, they provide the leverage and durability needed for professional applications.

Design & Configuration

Size Range

- 10 inch to 48 inch lengths
- 250mm to 1200mm lengths
- 1.5m to 2.0m lengths

Weight Options

- 4kg to 9kg
- 12.5LB to 17LB

Available Profiles

Round, Hexagon, Rectangle

Technical Specifications

Material & Finish

Hardened Steel • Corrosion-Resistant Finish

Key Performance Metrics

17 LB

Max Weight

2 m

Max Length