

Step-Through Electric Bicycle with Basket and Backrest

This electric bicycle has a step-through frame, front basket, and rear seat with a backrest. It is equipped with an electric motor and battery for assisted pedaling or full electric operation.

Overview

Designed for Urban Mobility

This step-through electric bicycle is engineered for comfortable urban commuting and everyday utility. It features a convenient front storage basket and a rear seat with a backrest to ensure passenger comfort. Built for reliability and security, the bike integrates advanced monitoring and energy management systems to provide a seamless riding experience.

Smart Features

Energy Storage	ACS automatic energy storage system
Navigation	GPS automatic positioning system
Remote Monitoring	DMS remote monitoring system

Design

Frame Style	Step-through
Integrated Features	Front basket, Rear seat with backrest, Integrated lighting