

Studio Strobe Light for Photography

This studio strobe light is designed for professional photography. It features adjustable power settings and a durable construction for reliable operation.

Overview

Professional Studio Lighting Solution

This high-performance studio strobe light is engineered for professional photographic applications, offering precise control and reliability. Designed to withstand demanding studio environments, it features advanced thermal management to ensure consistent output and extended equipment longevity. With its versatile mounting system, this unit is an ideal choice for photographers specializing in portrait and product photography.

Performance

Key Performance Metrics

800 Ws

Output Power

Operational Features

- Adjustable power settings
- Fast recycle times
- Advanced thermal management system

Compatibility

Mounting Standards

Standard Light Stand Mount, Universal Modifier Compatibility

Design

Build Quality

Durable Construction • Thermal Protection • Professional Grade