

Submersible Fountain Pump - European Voltage

This submersible pump is designed for creating decorative water features. It features an adjustable flow rate and fountain head to customize the water display and is designed for European voltage standards.

Overview

Submersible Fountain Pump

The FP-2 fountain pump is a versatile submersible unit engineered specifically for European voltage standards. It is designed to power decorative water features, ponds, and water gardens, offering both indoor and outdoor compatibility. With adjustable flow settings and customizable fountain heads, this pump allows users to tailor their water displays to their specific aesthetic needs.

Technical Specifications

Application Areas

- Decorative Fountains
- Ponds
- Water Gardens

Voltage Standard	European Voltage
Usage Environment	Indoor, Outdoor

Features

Customization Options

Adjustable Flow Rate • Adjustable Fountain Head