

Table Saw

This table saw is a precision cutting tool designed for a variety of applications. It features a robust construction with a stable base and a smooth, flat work surface.

Product Overview

Professional Precision Cutting

The MJ10200 table saw is a precision-engineered tool designed for versatility and reliability in demanding work environments. Featuring a robust, stable base and a perfectly flat work surface, it ensures high-quality results for a variety of woodworking applications. The integrated safety guard and adjustable fence system provide the security and repeatability required for professional-grade accuracy.

Technical Specifications

Design Type

Compact • Precision

Blade Type

Circular

Safety Features

Safety Guard, Protective Motor Casing

Operational Details

Suitable Environments

- Professional Workshops
- Home Use