

Textile Machinery Maintenance Brushes

These high-quality paint brushes are designed for textile machinery maintenance and repair. They feature durable bristles and ergonomic handles for comfortable, precise application of paints, coatings, and lubricants.

Product Overview

Industrial Maintenance Brushes

These professional-grade brushes are specifically engineered for the maintenance and repair of textile machinery. Featuring durable bristles and ergonomic handles, they ensure precise application of lubricants, coatings, and paints to keep complex equipment running efficiently. Designed to withstand demanding industrial environments, these tools help enhance the longevity and performance of your textile production line.

Technical Details

Primary Applications

- Lubricant application
- Protective coating application
- Machine cleaning
- Maintenance painting

Model Variants

913A, 801

Key Features

Maintenance Performance

2 types

Model Variations Available