

Topical Corticosteroid Cream

This topical cream provides relief from inflammation and itching. It contains 0.025% Fluocinolone Acetonide and is used for corticosteroid-responsive dermatoses.

Product Overview

Clinical Application

Fluocinolone Acetonide Cream B.P. is a topical corticosteroid formulation designed for professional dermatological use. It is indicated for the relief of inflammatory and pruritic manifestations associated with corticosteroid-responsive dermatoses. This product is intended for external use only and should be applied according to professional healthcare guidance.

Composition & Strength

Concentration

0.025 %
Percentage

0.25 mg
Amount per Gram

Active Ingredient	Fluocinolone Acetonide
Net Weight	10 g

Storage & Handling

Usage Type

External Use Only

Storage Conditions	Store below 30°C; keep tube tightly closed.
--------------------	---

Traceability

Batch Information

Detail	Value
Batch Number	080303
Manufacturing Date	03/2008
Expiry Date	02/2011