

Translucent Blue Electronic Modules

These are translucent blue electronic modules. The components are rectangular in shape and suitable for various applications.

Product Overview

Translucent Blue Electronic Modules

These translucent blue electronic modules are designed for integration into various electronic assemblies. Featuring a distinctive aesthetic, they are suitable for applications where component visibility or specific color coding is required. Their robust construction ensures reliability in diverse operational environments.

Physical Characteristics

Material Type

Translucent • Electronic Grade

Color

Translucent Blue

Form Factor

Rectangular