

Tungsten Carbide Core Box Router Bit

Tungsten carbide tipped core box bit designed for creating rounded grooves and channels. It is ideal for decorative edging, lettering, and general grooving applications.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Tungsten Carbide Core Box Router Bits

These Tungsten Carbide Tipped (TCT) core box bits are engineered for creating precise rounded grooves and channels in various woodworking applications. Ideal for decorative edging, lettering, and general grooving, they offer clean cuts across different wood types. Designed for durability and an extended lifespan, these bits are compatible with both manual routers and CNC machines, making them a versatile choice for professional and DIY projects.

Material & Construction

Tip Material

Tungsten Carbide Tipped (TCT)

Durability Features

Extended Tool Life, High Durability, Heat Resistant

Application & Compatibility

Primary Applications

- Rounded grooves and channels
- Decorative edging
- Lettering
- General grooving

Compatible Machinery

- Handheld Routers
- Table-mounted Routers
- CNC Machines

Suitable Materials

Various wood types and woodworking projects

Performance Specs

Cutting Quality

100 %

Precision Cutting

Technical Details

Size Options

Available in various sizes to accommodate different project requirements