

Two-Stage Snow Thrower with 21-24" Clearing Width

This two-stage snow thrower has a 163-196cc engine and clearing widths of 21-24 inches. It features all-steel construction and a 20-inch housing, clearing 56-59 tons/hour and blowing snow up to 40 feet.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

High-Efficiency Snow Management

This two-stage snow thrower is engineered for reliable performance in demanding winter conditions. Featuring a robust all-steel construction and a high-clearance housing, it effectively manages deep drifts while remaining easy to maneuver. Designed for both residential and light commercial use, this machine provides the power and precision needed for fast, efficient snow removal.

Performance Metrics

Clearing Capacity

56 tons/hr
Min Capacity

59 tons/hr
Max Capacity

Throw Distance

40 ft

Technical Specifications

Engine Displacement	163-196cc
Clearing Width	21-24 inches
Housing Height	20 in
Auger Diameter	11 in

Build Quality

Key Features

- Adjustable discharge chute
- Two-stage snow removal system
- High-traction tires
- Ergonomic control levers

Construction Materials

All-steel construction, Heavy-duty housing