

UHF Four-Channel Wireless Microphone System

This is a four-channel UHF wireless microphone system. It is designed for professional audio applications and features handheld microphones and a receiver unit.

Product Overview

Professional Wireless Audio

The UR-400 is a high-performance four-channel UHF wireless microphone system engineered for professional audio environments. This comprehensive setup includes four handheld microphones, each equipped with a clear status display, and a centralized receiver unit. Designed for reliable signal transmission, it is an ideal solution for live performances, corporate presentations, and public speaking applications.

Technical Specifications

System Components

- 4 x Handheld Microphones
- 1 x Wireless Receiver Unit

| | |
|----------------|-----|
| Channel Count | 4 |
| Frequency Band | UHF |

Control and Monitoring

Microphone Interface

Integrated Display • Handheld Design

| | |
|--------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Receiver Interface | Individual Channel Controls, Master Volume Control, Signal Strength Display, Frequency Monitor |
|--------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Applications

Best For

- Live Performances
- Presentations
- Public Speaking