

UHF Wireless Conference Microphone System

This UHF wireless conference microphone system is designed for seamless meeting communication. It features multiple channels and adjustable volume control for each channel, with a clear display for easy monitoring and flexible meeting setups.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

System Overview

Professional UHF Conference Solution

The HT-3399 is a professional-grade UHF wireless conference system engineered for high-fidelity communication in boardrooms and meeting halls. It features a robust design that supports multiple delegate units, ensuring clear voice capture and seamless interaction. With advanced capabilities like priority talk functions and user-friendly monitoring via an integrated LCD, it offers a reliable audio solution for modern professional environments.

Application Environments

Conference Rooms, Boardrooms, Meeting Halls, Professional Audio Installations

Technical Features

Control Features

- Individual channel volume control
- Priority talk function
- Multiple selectable channels
- Flexible meeting mode configurations

Transmission Technology

UHF Wireless

Display and Interface

System Interface

Feature	Capability
Display Type	LCD
Status Monitoring	Real-time channel and volume feedback
Deployment	Fixed or Portable