

Universal Miter Saw Workstation with Integrated Rollers

This universal work center is designed for woodworking and metalworking tasks. It features a steel frame, integrated rollers, adjustable material supports, a work light, and a folding design, with a maximum load capacity of 150 kg.

Product Overview

Professional Universal Work Center

The UWC1600I Universal Work Center is a versatile, robust workstation engineered for professional woodworking and metalworking tasks. Featuring a high-strength steel frame with adjustable legs, it ensures stability on any worksite surface. This integrated system enhances precision and efficiency through adjustable material supports, end stops, and built-in lighting for improved visibility.

Performance Metrics

Maximum Load Capacity

150 kg
Max Load

Key Features

Core Capabilities

- Integrated rollers for smooth material feeding
- Adjustable material supports with precision end stops
- Built-in work light for high visibility
- Folding design for portable storage and transport

Compatibility & Construction

Construction Details

Feature	Specification
Frame Material	Steel
Stability	Adjustable leveling legs
Primary Compatibility	Miter saws and chop saws

Compliance & Certification

Application Tags

Woodworking, Metalworking, Industrial, Portable