

Universal Remote Control for Philips TVs

This universal remote control is designed for Philips televisions and compatible devices. It allows easy navigation and control of various functions, including power, channel selection, volume adjustment, and menu access.

Overview

Universal Compatibility

This universal remote control is designed to provide seamless operation for televisions. Featuring an ergonomic and compact form factor, it ensures comfortable handling during daily use. The comprehensive layout includes dedicated buttons for power, volume, channel navigation, and menu access, making it a highly functional replacement for standard remotes.

Technical Features

Design Specifications

- Ergonomic compact design
- Comprehensive button layout
- Intuitive navigation interface

Compatibility

Philips Compatible

Control Functions

Power Control, Channel Selection, Volume Adjustment, Menu Navigation, Sleep Timer, Mute, Picture Settings, Sound Settings