

Universal Remote Control for TVs and Electronics

This universal remote control operates televisions and other electronic devices. It features power, mute, number pad, volume and channel control, menu navigation, and color-coded function buttons for user-friendly operation.

Overview

Universal Control Solution

This universal remote control is engineered to provide seamless operation across a wide range of televisions and electronic devices. It features an ergonomic layout including essential navigation keys such as power, volume control, channel selection, and menu access. Designed for universal compatibility and intuitive user experience, it acts as a reliable replacement or secondary controller for modern home entertainment systems.

Features

Functionality

- Power and Mute controls
- Full numeric keypad
- Dedicated Volume and Channel navigation
- System Menu and Info access
- Color-coded function buttons (Red, Green, Yellow, Blue)

Device Compatibility

Televisions, Electronic Devices, Universal Support