

Urban Commuter Motorcycle

This motorcycle is a compact and lightweight vehicle suited for urban commuting and recreational riding. Its robust engine provides reliable performance and fuel efficiency.

Overview

Urban Commuter Overview

The ST50-6B is a compact and lightweight motorcycle engineered specifically for urban commuting and recreational use. It features a durable frame construction paired with an ergonomic seat design to prioritize rider comfort and stability. With its reliable engine performance and responsive braking system, it serves as a versatile and dependable choice for daily transport.

Performance

Fuel Tank Capacity

5 L

Fuel Capacity

Key Features

Key Attributes

Lightweight, Compact, Urban Commuter, Classic Styling

Technical Specifications

Engineering Specs

Feature	Description
Frame	High-quality materials
Suspension	Comfort-tuned for uneven surfaces
Safety	Responsive braking system