

Vacuum Pump

The vacuum pump is designed for industrial applications. It provides efficient and reliable performance for various processes.

Overview

Commercial-Grade Coffee Urn

This professional stainless steel coffee urn is engineered for high-volume environments such as restaurants, cafeterias, and offices. It features a robust design that ensures durability while providing efficient brewing and dispensing capabilities. Equipped with intuitive indicator lights and temperature controls, it guarantees consistent performance and ease of use for serving large groups.

Technical Features

Construction Material	Stainless steel
Key Features	Water level gauge, No-drip faucet, Temperature control, Heating indicator, Ready status indicator

Operational Status

Operational Status

- Heating mode
- Ready to serve