

Versatile Woodworking Machine with Adjustable Fences

This professional woodworking machine features a robust build with a green painted metal frame, designed for versatile woodworking operations. Equipped with a powerful electric motor, it ensures efficient and precise wood processing.

Overview

Professional Versatile Woodworking Solution

The MQ443A combination machine is a robust and versatile woodworking solution engineered for precision and efficiency. Designed for demanding environments, this unit features a solid metal frame and a spacious, flat work surface suitable for a variety of material processing tasks. With integrated adjustable fences and safety guards, it provides both the performance required by professional workshops and the reliability sought by serious DIY enthusiasts.

Technical Specifications

Build Quality

Metal Frame • Robust Design

Model Identifier

MQ443A

Machine Capabilities

Woodworking, Combination Processing, Precision Cutting

Safety and Operation

Safety Equipment

- Integrated safety guards
- Adjustable fences for precise alignment