

Vertical Band Saw with Grinding Attachment

This power tool is a vertical band saw, designed for cutting metal and other materials. It also features a grinding attachment mounted on the side.

Product Overview

Professional Vertical Band Saw Solution

This high-performance vertical band saw is designed for precision cutting and processing of materials, suitable for professional and commercial applications. The unit features a robust, stable base with an integrated ventilation system for reliable operation. With the inclusion of a versatile grinding attachment, it provides a comprehensive solution for both cutting and sharpening tasks in a single footprint.

Technical Specifications

Construction Features

- Durable vertical blade frame
- Flat material support table
- Integrated ventilation grill for motor cooling
- Side-mounted grinding module

Safety Standards

Industrial Grade • CE Compliant

Configuration

Vertical Cutting Design, Integrated Grinding Attachment, Industrial Base