

Video Door Phone Intercom System

The video door phone intercom system provides a secure and convenient way to monitor and communicate with visitors. It features a high-resolution display for clear video imaging, two-way audio communication, and remote door unlocking capabilities.

Product Overview

Secure Visitor Management

This video door phone intercom system provides a professional-grade solution for monitoring and communicating with visitors. Designed for both residential and office environments, it integrates high-resolution video imaging with reliable two-way audio communication. The system streamlines visitor management while significantly enhancing property security through integrated remote door unlocking capabilities.

Key Features

System Capabilities

- High-resolution video monitoring
- Two-way audio communication
- Remote door unlocking
- Visitor management for homes and offices

Application

Ideal Applications

Residential Security, Office Access Control, Visitor Management