

Video Door Phone Kit with Touchpad

This video door phone kit provides a comprehensive security solution for residential and commercial properties. It features a high-resolution color display and a durable outdoor camera unit with night vision.

Product Overview

Professional Security Solution

This video door phone kit offers a high-resolution display and a durable outdoor camera unit for reliable visitor monitoring. Featuring two-way audio, motion detection, and auto-recording capabilities, the system provides enhanced convenience and security. The kit is designed for straightforward installation in both residential and commercial settings, supporting remote door unlocking and adjustable display settings.

Technical Specifications

Core Features

- Hands-free intercommunication
- Motion detection
- Auto-recording function
- Remote electric-lock release

Power Requirements

230 V

AC Voltage Option 1

110 V

AC Voltage Option 2

15 V

System Voltage

Installation Components

15m connection cable, Enclosed power adapter, Touchpad interface

System Compatibility

Sensor Options

CMOS • CCD