

Walking Tractor for Agriculture

This walking tractor is a robust and versatile machine designed for agricultural and land management applications. It features a powerful engine, providing ample torque for tilling, plowing, and other demanding tasks.

Product Overview

Robust Agricultural Performance

The AM 140 walking tractor is a versatile and heavy-duty machine engineered for professional agricultural tilling and land management. It combines high torque output with a durable chassis, making it suitable for demanding soil cultivation tasks. Designed for operator comfort, the unit features adjustable handlebars and specialized traction tires for reliable performance across varied terrain.

Technical Specifications

Engine Metrics

140

Model Series

Core Features

- High-torque engine for demanding tasks
- Heavy-duty tires for optimal traction
- Adjustable handlebars for ergonomic control
- Industrial-grade construction for durability

Build Standard

Heavy-duty • High-quality materials

Common Applications

Tilling, Plowing, Land Management