

Wall-Mounted Split Air Conditioner

This air conditioning unit provides both strong refrigeration and heating capabilities. Designed for wall mounting, it is suitable for efficient climate control in various indoor environments.

Overview

Professional Climate Control

The Angel 169 is a modern, wall-mounted split air conditioning unit engineered for efficient climate management in both residential and commercial environments. Its sleek, minimalist design integrates seamlessly into professional interiors while providing reliable temperature control. Featuring a clear digital display, the unit offers intuitive operation for optimal comfort and performance.

Design & Build

Design Aesthetic

Modern • Sleek • Minimalist

Mounting Type	Wall-mounted
Interface	Digital display

Application

Suitable For	Residential, Commercial
--------------	-------------------------